

War Inside my Head

 16  1  3

Chapter 1 by Brianna Garri

I put my hands over my ears as if it would block out the voices, memories, and nightmares playing inside my head. It was driving me insane. I screamed at random moments sometimes out of fear and sometimes hoping to fill myself with so much noise that I couldn't hear the voices but nothing worked. I was a mad girl.

Chapter 2 by Madison Shawver

I was always bullied in school. I know I am mad, but I am a very kind person apart from my madness!! It just makes me so MAD! And sad. My mother had taken me to many professional therapists but they could not tell me my problem. Will I ever be fixed? My mother had made many voicemail's for different companies for help. One day she got a call back from a mysterious caller. He would not state his company name or any information. But he knew what my problem was and how to help I immediately told my mother yes!! I was done listening to these stupid voices! But when we arrived at the address there was no house or building or any people. When a voice called out...
